POP-UP KIOSK

- This pop-up kiosk will give students an option to recycle their used gear for gift cards or trade them for other gear that they may be interested in.
- This will be great option for students who want to trade in their worn gear for new gear.
- Instagram stories and ads are our primary options for campus engagement. Allowing us to capture student’s attention as well as build hype around the Worn Wear program.

PATAGONIA STUDENT GIVEAWAY 2026

Cal Poly Pomona students will apply to be one of 10 selected winners to receive exclusive Patagonia gear and support for outdoor experiences throughout the school year. Students will submit online and respond to questions about their engagement on campus, investment in sustainability and where Patagonia's mission fits into their lifestyle.

You will receive a Patagonia gear pack (two jackets) and seasonal product drops/ gift cards during the year to help support your outdoor adventures.

Based on our student interviews, our Patagonia student giveaway should focus on:

The Main Message: “High-quality, sustainable merchandise that will support the students’ everyday lifestyle in and out of class.”

Client Appeal:

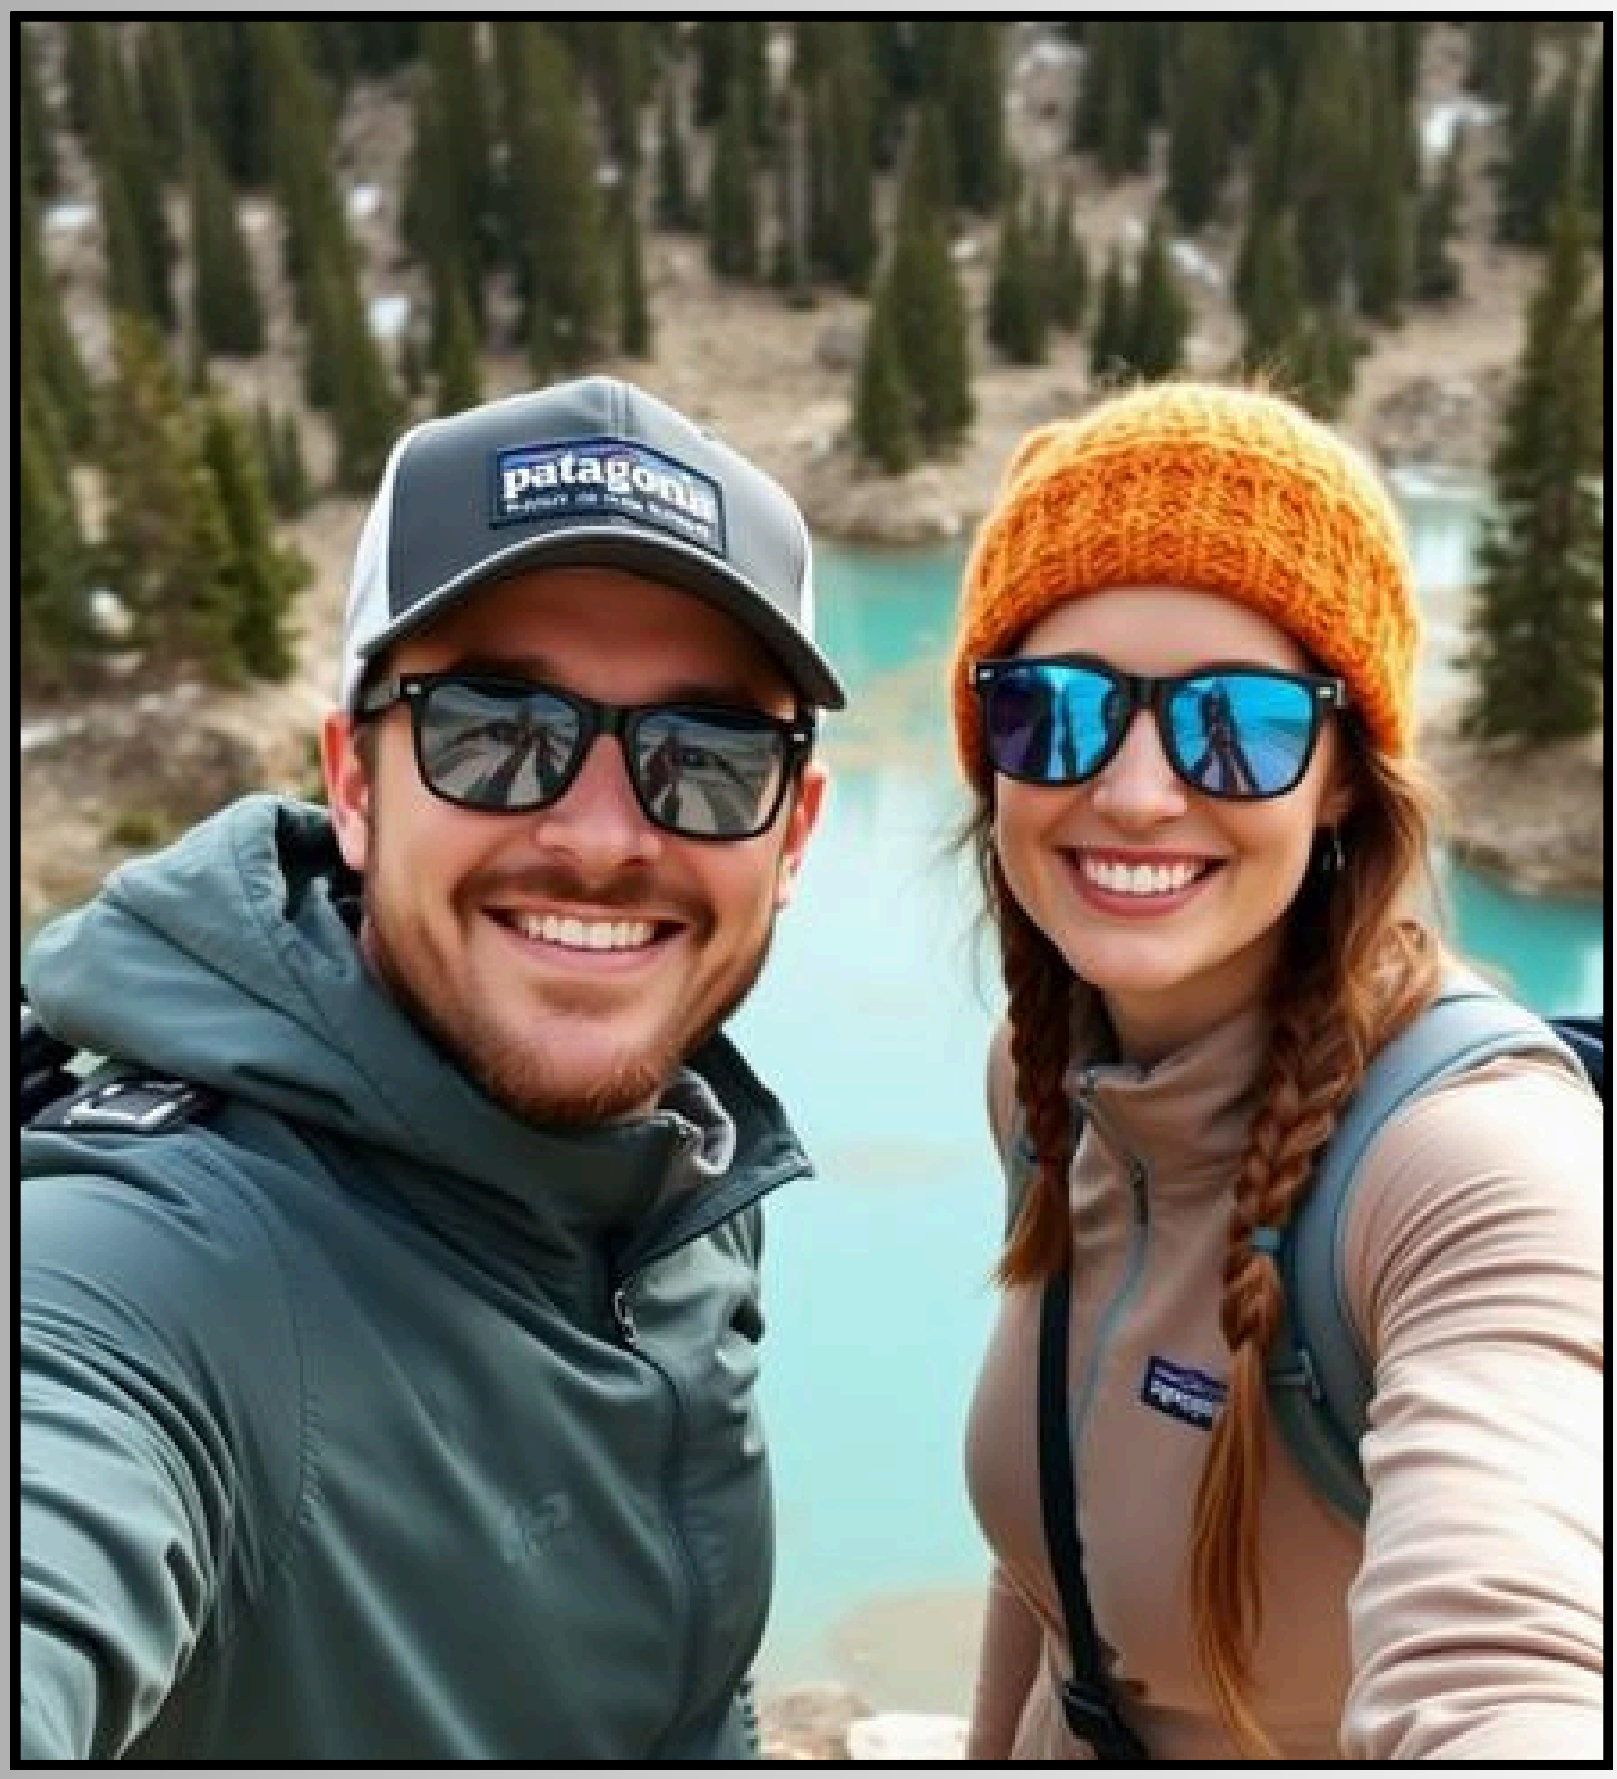

- Sustainability (aligns with the values of the students as well as Patagonia)
- Style and Function (Blending outdoor wear and streetwear for students)
- Financial Comfort (Free merchandise)
- Socializing among peers
- Informational awareness of the brand

These giveaways will help Patagonia gain retention and reach it’s goal of 100 visits per campus. This goal will create a larger loyalty among the customer base and Patagonia supporters.
